AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

*O beautiful for spacious skies / For amber waves of grain.
For purple mountain majesties / Above the fruited plain.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*

*O beautiful for patriot dream / That sees beyond the years.
Thine alabaster cities gleam / Undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy hood with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*

ECUMENICAL PRAYER

Father, we thank You for the many opportunities that have been given to each of us: the opportunity to keep an open mind to receive knowledge; the opportunity to experience change when it is needed; and the opportunity to be open and receptive to the thoughts of others and to accept their state of awareness, whatever it may be. Help each one of us to show forth God's love and compassion to those we come in contact with so that they may know and experience this love as we have.

Amen.

MARY T. SCHLOSS

Attorney

Mary T. Schloss leads many Cincinnati educational, health, and social programs. In 1979 she was awarded "Woman of the Year" honors by The Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mrs. Schloss is a member and former president and vice president of the Cincinnati Board of Education. She is active as a member of the Cincinnati Technical College Resource Development Fund Board of Directors.

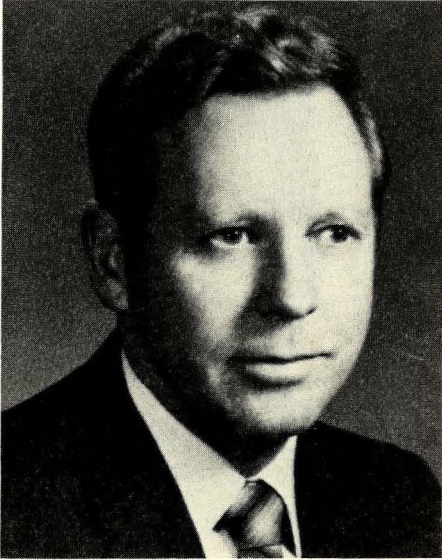

Mrs. Schloss served as president of the North Avondale PTA, the Cincinnati PTA Council, the Ohio PTA, and vice president of the National PTA. She received the Ohio PTA Oak Tree Award for Distinguished Service to Children and Youth in 1978. Her interest in primary education led the Ohio Department of Elementary School Principals to honor her with the first layman's award. She was president of the Ohio Advisory Committee on Vocational Education.

The Cincinnati native is a trustee and a past president of United Cerebral Palsy of Cincinnati. She also acts as vice president of the Easter Seal Society. Past service includes trusteeship of the Central Ohio River Valley Health Planning Association and the Hamilton County Health Planning Association.

Mrs. Schloss is a member of the Cincinnati Recreation Commission. She is a former president of Camp Stepping Stone and was vice president of the Community Chest and Council, the Cincinnati School Foundation, and the Citizens Committee on Youth.

Mrs. Schloss attended Cincinnati public schools and received her undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Cincinnati. She is a member of the Order of the Coif and was listed in UC's Law Review. The member of the Cincinnati and Federal Bar Associations received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Xavier University.

She is the wife of Milton J. Schloss, chairman of Kahn's and Company. They have three sons.

M. DALE TEETERS

President, Teeters Consulting and Research Service

M. Dale Teeters is one of Ohio's most honored experts on public finance and taxation.

Mr. Teeters recently completed twenty years of service to local government. He was chief deputy auditor for Highland County where he was responsible for preparing real, public utility, and personal property abstracts.

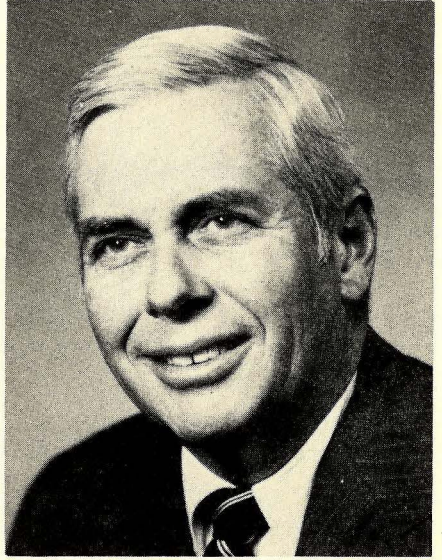

He began his duties for the State Board of Tax Appeals as an administrative assistant to the Chief of the Division of County Affairs. Later he was promoted to the position of Chief of the General Section of the Division of County Affairs. He served as a budget analyst to the Appeals Board and consulted with the legislature on local tax matters.

Prior to establishing his own local government consulting firm in 1978, Mr. Teeters was manager of the consulting division of Sabre Systems, Inc. of Dayton.

Mr. Teeters conducts seminars on school financing and tax budgeting for county, township, city, and university officials. He has been honored by Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Ohio Treasurers and Auditors Associations.

The Washington Court House resident and his wife Janice have three children.

JAMES A.D. GEIER

Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Cincinnati Milacron

James A.D. Geier exemplifies the best of corporate leadership with a strong commitment to the welfare of the community.

After completing his studies at Williams College, Mr. Geier joined Cincinnati Milacron in 1951. He is a product of the company's distinguished training school. Mr. Geier worked in several division of the company before being named a vice president in 1964. In 1970 he assumed the duties of president.

Besides his administrative responsibilities at Cincinnati Milacron, Mr. Geier is a member of the board of directors of Clark Equipment Company, The Central Trust Company, Central Bancorporation, and Marathon Oil Company. His keen understanding of business has made him a valuable member of the board of trustees of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce and of the general council of the American Management Association. This year he was selected co-chairman of the Cincinnati Business Committee, a group of business leaders giving a helping hand to city government and educational institutions.

Mr. Geier and Cincinnati Milacron are pacesetters in supporting cooperative education and the partnership it produces between industry and education. Cincinnati Milacron was one of CTC's first co-op employers and one of the most active with many employees serving on advisory committees.

As a Cincinnati native Mr. Geier has demonstrated an active interest in civic associations. In his fifteen-year term as president of the Cincinnati Museum of Natural History he led major expansion and renovation projects including the development of the Wilderness Trail and the creation of the man-made cave housed in the Museum.

Mr. Geier is a member of the board of trustees of the Community Chest and the Children's Home of Cincinnati. He is a director of the Cincinnati Chapter of the American Red Cross. He holds membership in The Commonwealth Club of Cincinnati and The Commercial Club.

Mr. Geier has three children.
