FLOYD BLACK

Attorney

Floyd Black is a practicing attorney with the firm of Render, Black and Johnson. He has served the judicial system as a special assistant on the Attorney General's staff and as a member of the Hamilton County Ohio Court of Common Pleas' Notary Commission.

In 1978, Mr. Black was appointed a referee in the Hamilton County Municipal Court. He also is a member of the Bankruptcy Committee of the Cincinnati Bar Association.

Mr. Black has been associated with Cincinnati Technical College since 1977, when he was appointed by Governor Rhodes to the Board of Trustees. He served three consecutive terms as chairman of the governing body.

The native of Americus, Georgia attended Morehouse College in Atlanta and The Salmon P. Chase College of Commerce. He received his law degree from the Chase College of Law.

Mr. Black is a former vice president of the Hamilton County Republican Club and co-chairman of the ninth ward.

He is an active member of the Pilgrim Baptist Church, serving as chairman of its official board. Mr. Black is a thirty-third degree Mason and member of King Solomon Consistory #20. He is a past master and assistant grand attorney of the M.W. Prince Hall Grand Lodge F.&A.M.

Mr. Black and his wife, Mabel, have one son.

JAMES L. WYLER

Retired Manager, Professional Placement & Community Relations, Siemens-Allis Inc.

James L. Wyler retired this year as manager of professional placement and community relations at Siemens-Allis, Inc. (formerly Allis-Chalmers). He and his company became one of the first co-op employers of Cincinnati Technical College students.

Mr. Wyler has made many contributions to CTC. He served on the College's General Advisory committee and the mechanical design engineering technology advisory committee. He has been a guest speaker at several CTC functions, including an engineering technologies division dinner and an Advisors Day luncheon.

The Cincinnati native is active in several other educational systems. He chairs the Great Oaks Joint Vocational School District General Advisory Committee and this year's Accreditation Committee. He was treasurer of the 1980 Great Oaks levy campaign. The Montgomery resident was chairman of the Sycamore School Planning Commission and a member of the system's Race Relation's Committee.

Other community activities include chairman of the evaluation committee, Community Chest and Council; vice president for operations, Junior Achievement; second vice president, Urban League; trustee and senior past president, Cincinnati Scholarship Foundation; member, Education Committee, Chamber of Commerce; coordinator, Business Education Partnership Program; and trustee, Career Education Association.

Mr. Wyler was graduated from Walnut Hills High School and Miami University. He and his wife have three children.

JAYNE BAKER SPAIN

Executive-in Residence
School of Government and Business Administration
The George Washington University

Jayne Baker Spain was appointed Executive-in-Residence of The George Washington University in 1979. That same year she was elected to the board of The Ohio National Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati.

Mrs. Spain has been involved in the corporate sector since 1951 when she became president of her family business, The Alvey Ferguson Company of Cincinnati. She remained its chief executive officer until 1966 when it merged with Litton Industries. In 1970, she was elected to the Litton board of directors, becoming only the second woman ever elected to board membership of one of the fifty largest U.S. corporations. Mrs. Spain is also a member of the board of Beatrice Foods Company of Chicago. She also was senior vice president of public affairs at Gulf Oil Corporation until she resigned in 1976 to become a consultant to the company.

Mrs. Spain was nominated and confirmed as a member of the United States Civil Service Commission in 1971. She was the sixth woman to serve as a civil service commissioner in the Commission's ninety-one year history.

The Cincinnati native is internationally known for her work in rehabilitating and training the physically and mentally handicapped. She has been called upon by other countries to demonstrate and consult to businesses on training the handicapped. In her Cincinnati company, ten percent of the employees were handicapped. Mrs. Spain has been appointed by four Presidents to the President's Committee on the Employment of the Handicapped.

She has received numerous honors from the State of Ohio, the federal government and foreign countries. She also has been awarded several honorary degrees.

Mrs. Spain was educated at the University of California at Berkeley and the University of Cincinnati. She is married to John A. Spain, a Cincinnati attorney. They have two sons.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

*O beautiful for spacious skies / For amber waves of grain.
For purple mountain majesties / Above the fruited plain.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*

*O beautiful for patriot dream / That sees beyond the years.
Thine alabaster cities gleam / Undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.*

ECUMENICAL PRAYER

Give us open minds, O Lord, minds ready to receive and to welcome new light of knowledge as may be revealed to us. Let not the past ever be so dear to us as to set limits to the future. Give us courage to change our minds, when that is needed. Let us be tolerant to the thoughts of others and receptive to such awareness as may come to us through them. May we be human channels through which love and compassion may reach the hearts and lives of those nearest to us.

Amen.
