

Cincinnati Technical College

Twenty-first Annual Commencement Exercises

Cincinnati Music Hall

Cincinnati, Ohio

Two o'clock p.m.

Sunday, September 18, 1988

America The Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies/For amber waves of grain. For purple mountain majesties/Above the fruited plain. America! America! God shed His grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream/That sees beyond the years. Thine alabaster cities gleam/Undimmed by human tears. America! America! God shed His grace on thee, and crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Ecumenical Prayer

Give us open minds, O Lord, minds ready to receive and to welcome new light of knowledge as may be revealed to us. Let not the past ever be so dear to us as to set limits to the future. Give us courage to change our minds, when that is needed. Let us be tolerant to the thoughts of others and receptive to such awareness as may come to us through them. May we be human channels through which love and compassion may reach the hearts and lives of those nearest to us.

Amen

Pianist, Wanda Lindquist
Music recorded by Rod Rupp.

A special "thank you" to the student honor escorts and ushers, the faculty and staff, and the 1988 Commencement Committee.

Daniel I. Hurley

Cincinnati History Expert

Daniel I. Hurley, an independent history consultant, has been very visible to the Cincinnati community during this Bicentennial Year.

Mr. Hurley has been instrumental in the production of the 52 "Bicentennial Diary" news stories on WKRC-TV. He also assisted in the scripting and production of the live television coverage of the Cincinnati Bicentennial Parade on July 3, 1988. Mr. Hurley's television work has been seen in a special news series on the origin of baseball and Cincinnati's historic ties with the Ohio River. He also produced and narrated the four-minute segment on the history of Cincinnati for "Good Morning America."

The historian is a consultant to the Cincinnati Bicentennial Commission for the overall planning of the Cincinnati Riverwalk, and he is the curator for the permanent exhibits along the Ohio River. Mr. Hurley is the general editor of the history of Western Southern Life Insurance Company, published in conjunction with the company's centennial in 1988.

Before entering full-time consultant work, Mr. Hurley was the director of foundation and corporate relations for Xavier University. He also served as education coordinator for the Cincinnati Historical Society and project director for the Cincinnati Neighborhood Studies Project.

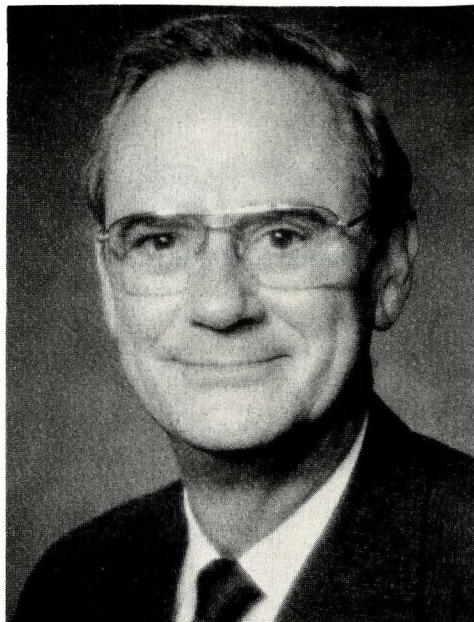

Mr. Hurley teaches history at Xavier University and the College of Mount St. Joseph, and has been a visiting professor at the College of William and Mary.

Mr. Hurley has authored several books and articles on Cincinnati, and he has lectured locally and nationally. He is a member of the boards of the American Red Cross, the Miami Purchase Association and the Ohio Association of Historical Societies and Museums.

The Covington, Kentucky native holds a baccalaureate degree from Xavier University and a master's degree from the College of William and Mary.

He is married and has two children.

Oliver W. Waddell

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Star Bank and First National Cincinnati Corporation

Oliver W. Waddell joined the staff of Star Bank (formerly The First National Bank of Cincinnati) in 1957 as a management trainee. In 1964, he was elected assistant cashier and made manager of the bank's Hyde Park office. He then became assistant vice president. Mr. Waddell joined the bank's Branch Administration in 1969, and he became vice president and head of Branch Administration in 1971. In 1976, he was named a senior vice president.

Mr. Waddell was made president and a director of the bank in 1980, and, in 1982, chief executive officer. In 1984, he became chairman and chief executive officer of Star Bank. Mr. Waddell was named a director of First National Cincinnati Corporation in 1982, and, in 1983, became chairman and chief executive officer.

The bank executive is a member of the board of trustees of Christ Hospital, Cincinnati Council on World Affairs, Cincinnati Music Hall, the Cincinnati Zoo, the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce and the Greater Cincinnati Foundation. He also serves on the board of directors of Boy Scouts of America, Myers Y. Cooper Company and Ohio National Life Insurance Company.

This year Mr. Waddell chaired the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra's International Touring Committee. He was selected Cincinnati of the Year by the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Mr. Waddell is a past chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and the United Appeal Campaign.

Mr. Waddell is a graduate of Duke University and has a law degree from the University of Kentucky.

Jean Patrice Harrington,
S.C., Ph.D.

Executive Director
Cincinnati Youth Collaborative

Sister Jean Patrice Harrington was appointed executive director of the Cincinnati Youth Collaborative (CYC) in 1988. The CYC is a cooperative effort of local business and industry, the Cincinnati Public Schools and area colleges and universities to insure a productive future for local young people.

Sister Jean Patrice is familiar to Cincinnatians as the former president of the College of Mount St. Joseph. She led this local college from 1977 to 1987. Upon her retirement, she was named president emerita. She also was a teacher and principal in the parochial schools of Denver, Colorado.

Locally, Sister Jean Patrice serves on the board of trustees of the Community Chest and the Workshop for Retarded Citizens. She also is a director to Cincinnati Bell and Star Bank. Sister Jean Patrice is active on the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission and the Cincinnati Bicentennial Commission. She also is a former member of the executive committee of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Sister Jean Patrice has been honored with several local awards. Among them are a citation from the National Council of Christians & Jews, the St. Francis Xavier Medal and honorary degree from Xavier University, Woman of the Year Award from The Cincinnati Enquirer, Distinguished Business & Professional Woman of the Year from the Chamber of Commerce and Cincinnati Business & Professional Women's Club, and Career Women of Achievement Award from the YWCA.

Sister Jean Patrice earned an undergraduate degree from the College of Mount St. Joseph, a master's degree from Creighton University, and a doctorate from the University of Colorado. She has enriched her educational and professional experiences with special studies abroad.
