America the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain.
For purple mountain majesties,
Above the fruited plain.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for patriot dream,
That sees beyond the years.
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood from sea to shining sea.

Music provided by Polished Brass.

Graduation Honors

Cum Laude 3.50 - 3.79

Magna Cum Laude 3.80 - 3.89

Summa Cum Laude 3.90 - 4.00

Students graduating with honors wear green honor cords.

Honors Experience graduates wear gold honor cords.

Academic Dress

From the costumes worn in the academic procession one can tell the level of degree (associate's, bachelor's, master's, doctor's) the wearer has earned, the field of learning, and the institution that granted the degree. The costume consists of cap, gown, and hood.

The usual cap is a square black mortarboard with a black tassel; the doctor's cap has a gold tassel. The gown is also normally black. Associate's, bachelor's and master's gowns are relatively plain and closed in front; the doctor's gown is cut fuller, is open in front, has velvet panels down the front, and has three velvet bars on the sleeves. The panels and bars are usually black.

The hood, patterned after the medieval monk's hood, goes over the shoulders and hangs down in back. The hoods for the three degrees vary in length from the bachelor's the shortest, to the doctor's the longest. The velvet border shows by its color the field of learning; the most common are: white - arts, letters, humanities (usually seen in honorary doctor's degrees); dark blue - philosophy (the most common in doctor's hoods); purple - law; scarlet - theology; green - medicine; golden yellow - science. The same colors may be used in the panels and bars of the gown. The most distinctive part of the costume is the silk lining of the hood which bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree.

2010 Commencement Speaker

Chancellor Eric D. Fingerhut

Eric D. Fingerhut is chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents.

He is an attorney with broad experience in politics, academia and community service.

A native of Cleveland, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree with highest honors from Northwestern University in 1981 and in 1984 graduated from the Stanford University School of Law.

After law school he worked as an attorney in the Older Person's Law Office of the Legal Aid Society of Cleveland, as an associate in a private law firm, and as associate director of the welfare-to-work program Cleveland Works before managing the mayoral campaign of Michael R. White and, after White's election, serving as his special assistant.

In 1990 Mr. Fingerhut won election to the Ohio Senate, and served from 1991-92.

In 1992 he won a seat in the U.S. House, representing a Cleveland area district through 1994.

Mr. Fingerhut was elected again to the Ohio General Assembly in 1998, and from 1999-2006 represented Ohio's 25th Senate District. He served for eight years on the Finance Committee, and on committees related to health, aging, environment, insurance, tax policy, economic development and education.

From 1995-2001 he served as a senior fellow at the Federation for Community Planning, a non-profit health and human services advocacy group in Cleveland.

In 2005, Mr. Fingerhut joined the Business Administration faculty of Baldwin-Wallace College as Director of Economic Development Education and Entrepreneurship. He also has served as a senior lecturer in the Case Western Reserve University Department of Political Science, School of Law, and Weatherhead School of Management.

On March 14, 2007 he was appointed by Gov. Ted Strickland as the seventh chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents. He was the first chancellor to be appointed by the Governor of the State of Ohio as a member of his cabinet, and is charged with building a system of higher education— from the GED to Ph.D. — designed to prepare all Ohioans for the 21st century and rival the nation in accountability and innovation.

Chancellor Fingerhut and his wife, Amy, along with their two young sons, Sam and Charlie, reside in Columbus.

2010 Award Winners

Brad Levy

House-Bruckmann Award

Brad Levy teaches developmental mathematics, and is one of two recipients of the 2010 House-Bruckmann Award for excellence in teaching at Cincinnati State.

Mr. Levy came to Cincinnati State as a student in 1995. He entered the College a construction worker planning to major in engineering technologies; he graduated with a major in mathematics and the ambition of becoming a teacher.

After earning his bachelor's degree in math from Northern Kentucky University he began teaching as an adjunct at Cincinnati State, and after earning a master's degree from Xavier University he was hired in 2006 as a math instructor in developmental education.

Dr. Rayma Smith, Dean of the Humanities and Sciences Divisions, noted that from his earliest days as an adjunct Mr. Levy has been tutoring students in the cafeteria, as part of a larger effort to cultivate a welcoming, "safe haven" approach to a subject that is often perceived as difficult.

Dr. Monica Posey, Vice President for Academic Affairs, said it nicely: "I would describe Brad as a beacon of hope for students in math."

Jon P. McKamey

House-Bruckmann Award

Jon P. McKamey, instructional designer and instructor in the Center for Innovative Technologies, is the other recipient of the 2010 House-Bruckmann Award for excellence in teaching at Cincinnati State.

He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Radio/TV/Film and a master's degree in Educational Media from Indiana State University, then went on to earn a PhD in computing technology in education from Nova Southeastern University.

At Cincinnati State he leads the College's instructional support technologies program, helping faculty incorporate Blackboard and other tools to improve the learning experience for students in classroom and online settings.

Dr. McKamey has also been active in the life of the College, serving on the First-Year Experience Advisory Committee, Distance Learning Advisory Council, Peer Mentoring Advisory Committee, Professional Development Committee, Academic Technology Committee and the Commencement Committee, among others.

Because his job involves teaching teachers, Dr. McKamey's classroom challenge is different and in many respects more difficult than that faced by most contenders for the House-Bruckmann Awards.

Because Dr. McKamey is so gifted at guiding instructors through the latest developments in learning technology, said Dr. Monica Posey, Vice President for Academic Affairs, "I would describe him as a beacon of hope for all of us."

Ed Horning

Distinguished Alumni Award

Ed Horning is the recipient of the 2010 Distinguished Alumni Award.

Mr. Horning graduated from Cincinnati State in 1971 with an associate's degree in electronic engineering technology. But since then he has earned his living – and considerable reputation – through a decidedly classical service, one that evolved long before electronics had even been imagined. Mr. Horning is the owner of Ed Horning Piano Tuning & Service. As such, he is responsible for the crucial musical instruments in some of the most important venues in Greater Cincinnati, including Music Hall and Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park.

He also tunes and repairs pianos for individuals in their homes, and is regularly asked to tune pianos for performers who are visiting the region. Even a partial list of the performers is long – and eclectic: Linda Rondstadt. Don McClean. Mose Allison. Ray Charles. Earl "Fatha" Heinz. Chick Corea. Claude Bowling. B.B. King. James Brown. Kenny G. Alicia Keys. Luther Vandross. Waylon Jennings. Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. Hank Williams, Jr. Conway Twitty. Merle Haggard. Bob Dylan. Graham Nash. Paul McCartney. The Beach Boys. Huey Lewis. The Pointer Sisters. Sarah McLaughlin. Manhattan Transfer. Allman Brothers. Frank Sinatra. Kenny Rogers. John Denver. Rod Stewart. The Who. The Moody Blues. Yes. Dolly Parton. Ozzie Osborne. Rush. Willie Nelson. Leon Redbone. Neil Young. Prince. Styx. Crystal Gayle. Crosby, Stills and Nash. Patty Labelle. George Burns. Cab Calaway. Lena Horn.

It is as a performer himself that Mr. Horning is best known around town. He is a member of the Cincinnati Dancing Pigs, a jug band (the city's premier jug band, according to its promotional literature) that was founded in 1967. Mr. Horning plays the banjo ukulele and harmonica and helps out with vocals for a band that prides itself on having played at every Tall Stacks event that Cincinnati has put on, plus its Bicentennial Celebration and more pig roasts, parties, summer concerts, barroom gigs and weddings than band members can remember.

Nearly everyone who nominated Mr. Horning for the 2010 Distinguished Alumni Award noted something else about him: a pattern of consistent, quiet community service. He has long been an active member of the Cincinnati State Alumni Association, of course, but also of such organizations as the Lion's Club of Western Hills. He has helped organize the Price Hill Thanksgiving Day Parade, along with picnics and golf outings for the blind and sight-impaired.

The author of one support letter remarked, "While Ed may not be the typical candidate for an award with the word "Distinguished" in the name, he has distinguished himself as a musician/performer, as a business owner and service provider, as a servant to Cincinnati State and to his community."
